WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM
Headmaster

The inevitable future staring us in the face—the decade of the 70's, certainly—belongs to all of us, but most especially to you, the young. Only those of us, however, who profit from the lessons of the present will share in the benefits of the future, as we oldsters have profited from the past that was our present. This may sound old hat, but it's as true now as it was before and as it forever will be. No one, given the opportunity, should deny himself a productive part of the future, either by neglect or default. Time will not stand still, so I exhort you in the strongest terms I know to grasp the present and pursue excellence in all you do.

Every conspicuous and significant wonder of today's science and technology was merely a dream a few years ago. The possibilities of the future, growing out of the experiments and achievements of the present, like the myriad stars in the night sky, are beyond our imaginations. Those who want part of the action in the 70's and beyond, must prepare for it now. We've only laid the groundwork in high school.

This nation's potential in terms of natural and human resources is amazing. We see in you, and in young people like you, the future of this nation. You dream it; you will shape it. Your participation in it will reflect the sense of values and the sense of proportion you are now developing. You will determine, in large measure, the kind of world you will live in.

Work—hard work and sacrifice—will get you the things you want, and they won't be handed to you. These successes may be in a school, in a shop, or at an office. There's no substitute for it. In the eighteenth century Lord Chesterfield made a wise comment about work:

The more one works, the more one is willing to work.

Work maketh a full man. Reduced to basic terms, your future will be determined solely by the deliberate effort you apply now to make dreams of the future come true.

As sincerely as I can, I suggest you strive to make tomorrow better than today. Good will, strong character, steadfast purpose, high goals, and hard work now will help you attain the happy, successful life you want and deserve. This I wish you with the deepest feeling.

W.J.C.

I come to you with a heavy heart ...

Don't worry, dear, I'll eat your share.

$$X^2 - 3\sqrt{6.793^2} = 6$$

Son of a gun! My heart stopped beating!

And now a word from our sponsor ...

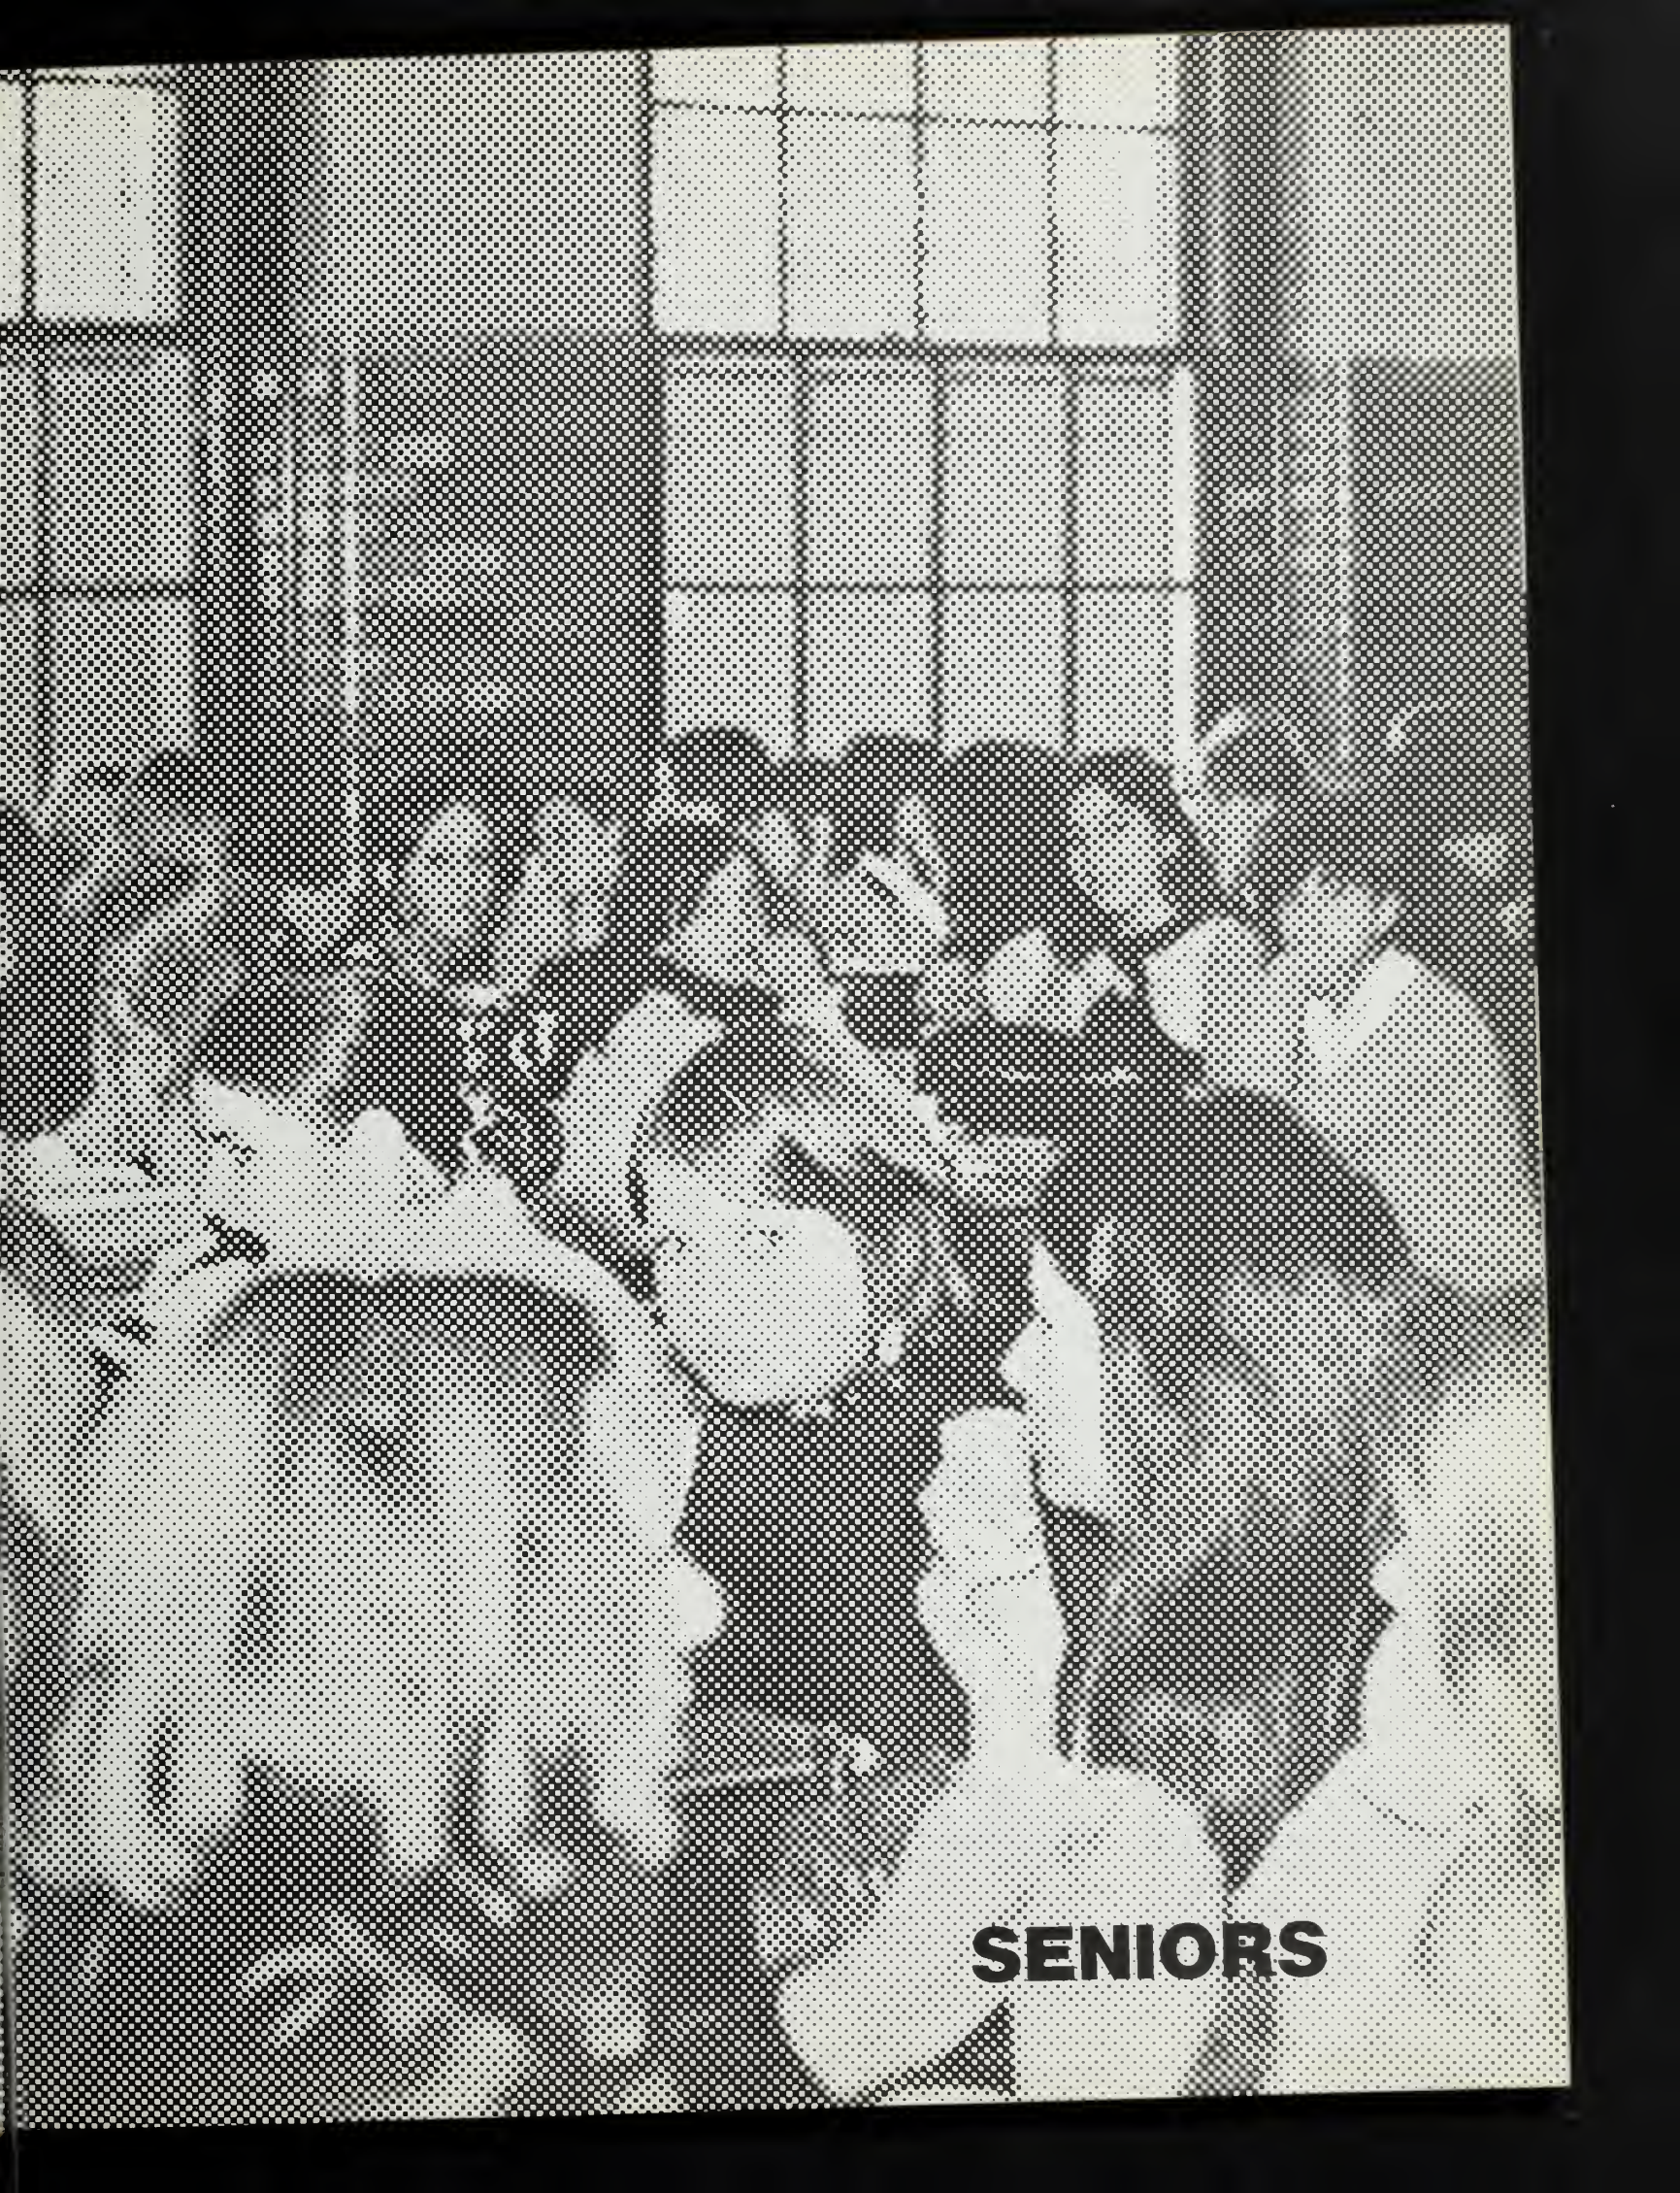

Wanna come into my office and see my etchings?

All my life I've been dominated by women! (and I love it!!)

O.K., kid, what mark do you want?

R.H.S.-social beehive.

Are you SURE this isn't Mr. LoConte's movie?

But I was only three days late!

The only stuff we trust in this place is the coffee.

I don't think she looks that good!

We love a parade!

I don't know what it is, but ...

Betsy Ross strikes again!

Running for president is a pain in the neck!

You'll never get into Wentworth with dull pencils.

I just love fire drills!

CASHIERS

J. Damiano, M. Kasianowicz.

I warn you . . .

Poof!

You want a pass to go where?

One, two, kick . . . HEY!

Dear Data Dater—I think you punched too many holes in my card.

A loaf of bread, a jug of wine, and Dan!

Going my way?

You can't hide from me forever!

Did you hear something rip?

... for he's a jolly good fellow ...

Pucker up!

Your hands really are softer!

Good morning, Dr. Connolly.
Your assignment, should you decide . . .

Must I kiss your feet?

O.K. Everybody into the pool!

First Rossie, then . . . Hoboken, New Jersey!

Who's the tall kid with the glasses?

Senior Thesis

I. Thoughts about the hereafter

(or . . . Is there a life after graduation?)

Seriously, graduation isn't the end, you know. It's just the beginning. And it could be the beginning of one of the most challenging and fulfilling times of your life. At New England Telephone.

It could be, that is, if you want a job with a challenge as big as your ambition. We need people at New England Telephone — all kinds. People who are sincerely interested in the future.

And who are looking for more from their job than just work!

Your starting salary is good and you get automatic raises.

You don't need experience! Your advancement is tailored to your talents. And you get excellent fringe benefits.

II. See your Guidance Counselor

She'll tell you when and where you can apply for an interview to find out what the "hereafter's" like at
